French soldiers tried to disperse the crowd, which cried, "Go where there is fighting, you cowards."

It was some time before quiet was restored.

POLES SCORE GAINS.

BERLIN, May 8.—Reports from German sources today declare that advances from Upper Silesia up to last night showed no diminution in the gravity of the situation there caused by the Polish insurgent movement.

The Polish irregulars were reported to be planning attacks against some of the large towns in the district, and their onslaught upon Koenigsbuehle is declared by the Vossische Zeitung to have been successful, the town surrendering after several hours' resist.

The railway junction of Kandyzin near Kossel, was given up by the Germans after they had suffered severe losses, the insurgents marching in.

Poland to Take Action.

WARSAW, May 8.—[By the Associated Press.]—In the face of increasing clashes between the insurgents and Germans the Polish government has decided upon a vigorous plan of action in an attempt to settle the insurrection initiated by Adebort Korfanty, the former plebiscite commissioner in Upper Silesia, with the object of joining the industrial section of Upper Silesia to Poland.

The Polish cabinet has issued a statement to the effect that while the ministry thoroughly understood the patriotic motive which led to the spontaneous outbreak throughout the mining districts, the government again disapproved of the insurrection and considered the movement a vain attempt to attain the desired end under present circumstances.

Will Send Peace Appeal.

The government, according to diplomatic circles, is contemplating framing an appeal to the Silesians to drop their arms and return to work, and permit the allied authorities to settle the dispute, without further interference, in accordance with the treaty of Versailles.

One of the problems Poland is compelled to face is the repeated efforts of Poles to go to the assistance of the insurgents.

Dispatches received today report that 50,000 armed workmen from the Dombrowa-Sosnowice mining district, in East Silesia, have attempted to cross the frontier to assist the insurgents, but all were turned back by the Polish authorities.

Poles and Germans Clash.

Pitched encounters between the insurgents and the Germans have occurred at various points in the Rybnik district, where, according to Polish reports, more than 150 Poles have been killed and many wounded, while the German casualties were even heavier.

In a protracted fight for possession of Friedrichshuetten, an important foundry center, more than thirty Poles were killed, the German casualties being unknown.

Despite the efforts of the government to soothe public opinion while the fighting continues, demonstrations are being held daily in Warsaw by the labor parties, consisting of street parades and speech making, urging the continuance of the struggle for deliverance from German rule of the Polish workmen of Upper Silesia, and pledging to fight until the end.

The Horn Finds a Formidable Rival

Five thousand melody folk, from piano tuners to saxophone makers, arrived in town yesterday and were duly welcomed by this mastodon drum and its accompanying femininity. For the Music Trades convention opens its four days of confabbing at the Drake hotel today. The drum is said to be the biggest in the world—more than ten feet in diameter—and was accordingly selected for the occasion instead of the municipal horn.

BENSON PLEADS 'READJUSTMENT' AT SEA IS VITAL

New York, May 8.—Admiral W. S. Benson, chairman of the United States shipping board, today addressed an appeal to officers and men of the merchant marine asking their cooperation with the board's policies in the present critical marine situation.

He urged that readjustments in wage scales be accepted, since many industries have recognized the need for reductions, and in many cases the workers have accepted them.

The board has not singled out the seamen for reduction, he said, but cuts have been asked in the wage scales in ship yards and repair yards, which in most instances have been agreed to.

CITY HEALTHIER THAN LAST YEAR, REPORT SHOWS

General health conditions in Chicago showed an improvement last month, according to the report issued yesterday by Health Commissioner John Dill Robertson. The sickness and death rates were lower than a year ago. A few suggestions were made in the commissioner's report:

Wait for an appetite. Eating when not hungry causes chronic indigestion.

Use plenty of boiling water, soap and elbow grease in the spring housecleaning, and thus keep the germs away.

Discourage the fly by covering the garbage can.

Don't dose the baby with patent medicine.

WASHINGTON NEWS—IN BRIEF—

[BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.]

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 8.

In urging popular support of the summer military training camps, Gen. Pershing proposed that the historic American divisions in the great war be perpetuated as the framework of the army reserves.

The fate of the proposed sales tax rests largely with the senate finance committee, which will begin hearings tomorrow on the proposal. The house ways and means committee is opposed to sales tax.

A movement is on foot in congress to abolish the railway labor board as now constituted and also to abolish the trade commission and the shipping board.

Senator Johnson of California will introduce a resolution to submit a constitutional amendment authorizing congress to establish a presidential direct primary and to regulate primaries for the nomination of senators and representatives.

Delegations from the Patriotic Union of Haiti will submit to the president and congress a report charging American marines with numerous atrocities not investigated by the Daniels court of inquiry and demanding withdrawal of the American forces occupying Haiti.

JOAN OF ARC FETES LEAD TO BLOODY RIOTING

Police and Communists Clash in France.

PARIS, May 8.—[By the Associated Press.]—There was considerable disorder today in Paris and in other places during the celebration of the anniversary of the lifting of the siege of Orleans by Joan of Arc in 1429.

Fourteen policemen and twenty-three Communists were wounded and many arrests were made when Communists tried to enter the gates of Paris in protest against the celebration. There was hand to hand fighting between the demonstrators and mounted guards who barred the way of the Communists.

The disorders continued for several hours, during which time there was considerable shooting and the hurling of missiles from the walls of the fortifications.

Mayor Waves Red Flag.

Disturbances also took place at Brest, St. Etienne, and Limoges. In the latter city Deputy Mayor Bouteille led a red flag parade of several thousand persons through the streets.

The government's efforts to arrange celebrations met with opposition everywhere. A number of cities refused to undergo the expense, while at other places objections were made to the event on political and religious grounds.

At St. Etienne disorder broke out during services in the church. Revolver shots were exchanged, but there were no casualties.

Celebrated in Many Cities.

In various cathedrals throughout the country services were held to inaugurate the three day celebration. At Orleans, where the anniversary has been observed for hundreds of years, the ceremony of delivering Joan of Arc's war banner to the Bishop of Orleans was held.

The streets of Paris, Orleans, and other cities were decorated with French flags and Joan of Arc's colors, white and blue. French military and marine forces rendered honors at all the celebrations and members of the cabinet and government officials delivered addresses.

At Cherbourg the American cruiser Chattanooga and the torpedo boat destroyers Sands and Williamson took part in a naval display and fired shots in honor of the occasion.

Throughout the country statues of Joan of Arc were decorated with flowers.

TEXAS MOB GIVES PHYSICIAN TAR AND FEATHERS

Beaumont, Tex., May 8.—[Special.]—Dr. J. S. Paul, for twenty years a resident of Beaumont, is confined to his home today, suffering from lacerated back and wrists and nervous shock as a result of a beating administered last night by a mob of fifteen masked men, who afterward coated his body with coal tar and feathers.

Paul was taken into the woods near here. Brought back in an automobile, he was dumped into the street in the heart of the business section. A crowd of Saturday night shoppers gathered about the physician, whose only garment was a pair of short drawers and his coat of tar and feathers. He was bleeding from lacerations on the back.

The spokesman of the assailants told Dr. Paul the punishment was because of "malpractice."

MANILA BIDS FULFILL PL TO GIVE LIB

7,000 Filipinos in Greet Wood Mis

MANILA, P. I., May 8.—Independence.

A great banner with the English upon it was carried by thousands of men and women through the streets of Manila today to express the hope of the Philippine people.

More than 7,000 Filipinos participated in the demonstration.

Other banners carried by the demonstrators were those of the middle classes, the United States flag, and the flag of the Philippine Republic. The demonstrators were cheered by the throngs of students and laborers who lined the streets.

Laborer Wants Liberty

As old Tagalog laborer, interviewed by THE TRIBUNE, said:

"I want independence just as people want it. But if we depend on America, I remain a Spanish subject. This is my opinion. If the new party in power in the United States will not give independence at this time, we will fight to the death, if they do not come into control, for their bad rulers."

Others in the crowd seemed to think that Gen. Wood was a new governor, but they did not resent it. Gen. Wood was in Spanish, saying that the mission would reveal the right of the people to full independence.

At the conclusion of the mission settled down in the old Spanish castle. It was spent in conferring with leaders and the reading of reports of conditions.

Gen. Wood has realized that a big and delicate task, a Gov. Harrison led the people along the road to independence. The islands now are practicing governing. Any backward turn Americanization would be a reaction, even were such a move to benefit the people.

7,000 Filipinos in Parade Greet Wood Mission.

MANILA, P. I., May 8.—"We want independence," a great banner with these words in English upon it was carried above the heads of thousands of marchers who crowded the gardens in front of the palace today to express the welcome and hope of the Philippine people to Gen. Leonard Wood and Commissioner W. Cameron Forbes of the special Philippine mission.

"We have faith in the intention of the congress of the United States to carry out its promise to the people of the Philippines in the Jones law," was the message on another banner. "We have faith in the justice of the mission and desire to afford a full investigation of the affairs of the islands."

More than 7,000 Filipinos participated in the demonstration, which was remarkable for its friendly spirit and orderliness. Gen. Wood, Commissioner Forbes, Mayor Fernandez, and the president of the municipal board appeared upon the palace balcony and were cheered by the throng. Then delegations from the labor unions and hundreds of students paraded the thoroughfares for hours.

Laborer Wants Liberty.
An old Tagalog laborer, who was interviewed by THE TRIBUNE correspondent, said:

"I want independence just as all the people want it, but if we must be dependent, we would prefer to be dependent on America. I remember the Spanish rule. This is much better. If the new party in power in the United States will not give us our independence at this time, we must be patient. We would fight the Japanese to the death, if they should ever come into control, for they would be our rulers."

Others in the crowd seemed to have the idea that Gen. Wood had come as a new governor, but they did not seem to resent it. Gen. Wood spoke briefly in Spanish, saying that the mission would investigate and then would make a comprehensive and impartial report. Commissioner Forbes declared that all actions of the mission would be directed by what was thought best for the Filipinos.

Headquarters in Castle.
At the conclusion of the demonstration the mission settled down to work in the old Spanish castle. Yesterday was spent in conferring with various leaders and the reading of complaints and reports of conditions.

Gen. Wood has realized that his is a big and a delicate task, as former Governor Harrison led the people far along the road to independence, and the islands now are practically self-governing. Any backward turn toward Americanization would be considered a betrayal, even were such a move made to benefit the people.

The young Filipinos of the educated class express themselves as ready to fight if the suggestion of former President Taft to do away with the senate and place an American commission in control were carried out. Recovering control of the interior, decided upon, will have to be effected slowly. Such leaders as President Gomez of the senate privately have expressed themselves against this.

Freedom Memorials Out.
Raphael Palma, head of the independence commission, called upon Gen. Wood and Commissioner Forbes yesterday and presented a memorial showing how the campaign for independence has been carried on since 1907. The National Civic league, composed of young Filipinos, presented a similar memorial.

"There is no question what policy Manila wants, but President Harding wanted the mission against pleasing nearly this group, so nothing can be determined until the interior has been visited."

Americans on the islands claim that the Moros never would accept a Filipino government. Still, it is pointed out that they have accepted the present government and have been quiet since the recent fight between Moros and the constabulary on the Sulu archipelago, when ninety-three of the former were killed.

Palma Gives Plan.
President Palma, describing what he believed would be a workable plan, said today:

THE START—AND—THE FINISH

Alfred W. Lawson's $75,000 "Pullman of the air"—the largest craft of its kind ever constructed in this country, equipped with berths and (an improvement over rail travel) a bath—crashed on its maiden voyage yesterday in Milwaukee. The flying field was small and the ship's 1,200 horse power motors failed to lift it quickly enough to avoid a telegraph pole and a tree. The picture shows the Lawson mechanics joining hands to start one of the big Liberty engines.

The accident will not alter Mr. Lawson's plans. Ten thousand dollars and two weeks' time will suffice, he said, to make the big craft ready for the air once more—though to a layman's eye the damage seemed more consequential. When the ship is operating according to schedule it will ply between Chicago and New York, carrying twenty-six passengers, besides several tons of mail and freight.

IRISH REPUBLIC MOBILIZES FOR SUMMER WAR

Army Larger; Spy System Perfect.

BY JOHN STEELE.
[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]
Copyright, 1921: By The Chicago Tribune.

DUBLIN, May 8.—Dublin is a city of spies. The hotels are filled with them. They haunt the streets and hang about the business houses, newspaper offices, and government bureaus. The people speak in whispers and look carefully around to see who is listening before communicating anything important.

These spies are both British and Sinn Feiners, but the Sinn Feiners are more numerous and more clever. The British spies are rather obvious. A Sinn Feiner may be any one. A famous British officer serving in Ireland told me yesterday he considered the Sinn Fein intelligence service the best organized and most efficient in the world.

Hotel Servants Are Spies.
Every hotel servant is a spy. The maid who makes your beds is sure to gather up any torn scraps of paper and pass them on to a quarter where they will be placed together in search of information which may be useful to the "army of the republic."

An American official told me he made it a rule to burn all correspondence. When you are talking in a hotel lounge the waiters are liable to be found standing close behind, taking in every word. If you take a guest to a room, the chambermaid finds an excuse to enter silently to see to the bed, fire, or some other trifling duty. A striking feature of the Sinn Fein intelligence service is the counter espionage work. The British intelligence is loosely organized, and the chiefs usually do not know the actual operations. The men they employ are known to the Sinn Fein. Hardly a day passes that a body is not found with a tag "Executed by the I. R. A. Spies Beware!"

The British often declare these persons are not connected with their espionage system. The Sinn Fein declares it kills no mistakes. A typical case is that of Kitty Carroll, who was murdered some weeks ago in County Monaghan. The manner in which the story came shows how widespread are the Sinn Fein ramifications. It was told by a gentle old lady, whose fame as a writer extends to two continents. She told it as a matter of course, displaying no trace of sympathy for a sister woman done to death.

"Kitty Carroll," she said, "was a spy. She had been giving information to the police verbally. The Sinn Fein warned her and she started writing. Her letters were intercepted, and she was taken out and shot."

THOSE who appreciate beauty are rejoicing in the recent discovery that the wonderful old blocks for printing those exquisite OLD SCENIC WALLPAPERS were not destroyed when the splendid and ancient factory of J. Zuber & Cie. (mfrs. of wallpaper since 1797) was in the battle zone of Alsace-Lorraine.

It is with much enthusiasm that lovers of the old papers have welcomed a newly arrived group of them. They are the first since the war began, and Mr. Victor Petry—that decorator of genius—with Mr. David Belasco's unqualified consent, has used upon the scenic backgrounds of the adorable and refreshing play, "Call the Doctor" (now at the Powers Theatre), two of these fascinating papers, namely, the "Decor Chinoise" and the "Classic Landscape."

BAR CHIEF BARES CITY HALL'S EVIL DESIGN ON BENCH

Tells Why No-Party Judge
Ticket Is in Field.

With the consent of the author and of Frederic Ullmann, editor of the Chicago Bar Association Record, in which it appears today, The Tribune herewith reproduces an article by Amos C. Miller, chairman of the committee of nine former presidents of the Bar association, which favored the nonpartisan coalition judicial ticket. In his article Mr. Miller tells the story of the formation of the "sitting judges' ticket" and the repeated refusal of the city hall to join in the nonpartisan movement. The article follows:

BY AMOS C. MILLER.

The Bar association has, for years past, made it a practice before each judicial election to appoint a special committee to investigate and report to the members upon the fitness of the various candidates for the bench; the purpose being to give the membership all the available information to enable them to vote intelligently at the bar primary. Sometimes these bar primaries have been held after political parties have made their nominations, and sometimes they have been held before the primary election for party nominations for the bench.

New Plans Adopted This Year.
This year a new plan was adopted, with the idea of enabling the bar as-

RIGID INVESTIGATION OF HAYES SHOOTING WILL BEGIN TODAY

An inquest will be held today over the body of Frank Hayes, 22 years old, 4537 North Paulina street, who was killed Friday night by Policeman Leo C. Hammerbach of the Town Hall station, who was under the impression that Hayes was a burglar.

FRANK HAYES.

John J. Hayes, a former member of the board of education, asked Chief of Police Fitzgerald to conduct a rigid investigation. Frank, he said, was a lieutenant in the world war and a graduate of Loyola university. He had left his home a short time before being shot, stating he was going out for a walk.

The policeman, who had been on the force for more than two years, was on his way to work. He said he saw young Hayes coming out of a gangway at 4222 Malden street and ordered him to halt. The youth evidently believed him a holdup man and ran. The policeman fired.

action to exercise a greater influence than it has heretofore toward securing judges well qualified for the position. Experience has shown that if the bar association waits until after the party nominations have been made before undertaking to exercise any influence in the selection of judges it is sometimes too late to accomplish much good, because the nomination on both tickets are unsatisfactory. It was, therefore, decided this year to appoint a permanent committee on candidates. The purpose of appointing a permanent committee was to avoid any charge of suspicion that any member was chosen because of his friendship for any particular candidate. It was also concluded to pick the committee entirely from ex-presidents of the association, because it was thought that a committee so composed would fairly represent the membership in general.

Committee Invites Conference.
The president appointed a committee of nine. This committee began last fall to lay plans to secure, so far as possible, good nominations upon the tickets of both of the principal political parties. The committee conferred with the party managers of each party and the different factions of each party, so far as those party managers were willing to confer.

The committee did not seek the nomination of any particular candidates, but urged upon party managers the great importance of choosing a high class of candidates, and asked the party managers to confer with the Bar association committee, with the end in view of making sure that no unfit men were placed on either ticket. The committee devoted a large amount of time and labor to this end.

All the various parties and factions, except the so-called city hall faction of the Republican party, showed at all times a willingness to confer with our committee, and professed a desire to go as far toward meeting the wishes of the committee as imperative political consideration would permit.

City Hall Refuses to Confer.
Finally, a few weeks ago, the committee, not having been able to get any conference with the so-called city hall faction of the Republican party, called a meeting of all factions of that party and of the Democratic central committee. Everybody responded except the city hall.

That fact seemed to indicate quite clearly that the present management of the Republican county committee preferred to place a ticket in the field without any regard to the aims of the bar association, and proposed to be guided in selecting their candidates solely by political considerations. All available information, moreover, was to the effect that the Republican managers proposed to exclude from the ticket all except three or four of the present sitting judges, and to fill up the bench with new and untried men.

At an early meeting of our committee and the party managers it was proposed that a full ticket be selected at a primary to be conducted by the Chicago Bar association, at which all lawyers of Cook county should have a vote, and that the ticket so chosen should be supported and nominated by the Republican factions other than the city hall faction, and by the Democratic convention.

Decide on Democratic Column.
This plan was strongly urged by our committee. Nearly all the political leaders were ready to endorse that plan, but they were not unanimous, and without unanimity the plan was considered not feasible.

The committee, therefore, since that time, directed its efforts toward inducing the Democratic managers to place upon the ballot, under the Democratic column, all the sitting judges, whether Republicans or Democrats, who were willing to run on that ticket. This plan has now been carried out. Fourteen of the twenty Circuit court nominees on that ticket are present sitting judges. Nine of those fourteen are Republicans. Of the six new names, one is a Republican and the other five Democrats. Thus the twenty nominees for the Circuit bench on this ticket are evenly divided between the two parties. We are gratified to report the success of our efforts to secure the renomination of the fourteen sitting judges.

The committee has not assumed to commit the association to any man or set of men. If the association shall finally decide to support one or the other ticket as a whole, it will be by a vote of the membership at large.

BLAZE IN BRANCH POSTOFFICE.
A fire of unknown origin damaged the third floor and roof of the south Chicago branch post office at East 9th street and Exchange avenue yesterday. No mail was destroyed.

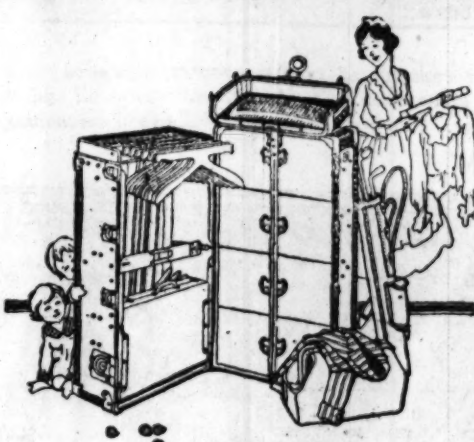

BRITISH TROOPS ON STRIKE DUTY IN SERIOUS RIOT

(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)
LONDON, May 8.—A serious riot occurred among soldiers in Aldershot last Saturday night, and great damage was done to the town's shops through vandalism and looting. Several of the townspeople were taken to the hospital seriously hurt.

The cause of the riot is believed to have been the fact that a number of reserve soldiers were called up for ninety days' duty because of the miners' strike.

Every shop in Wellington street was damaged and looted. A similar outbreak on a smaller scale took place at Doncaster last Friday night, when soldiers attacked the police. Riot agitators are believed to have inspired both riots.

DEMOCRATS OF 30TH OPEN FIGHT FOR 'FREE' BENCH

Republicans Join in Yards District Meeting.

Workers in the steel yards district arose yesterday in protest against the attempts of the Thompson-Lundin machine to corrupt the judiciary, and at an enthusiastic meeting in the Thirtieth ward endorsed the independent candidate ticket of judges.

The meeting, which was held in McQuay's hall, Forty-seventh and Halsted streets, was called for the purpose of perfecting the Democratic organization in the ward, but feeling is so high that many Republicans also attended. Former State Senator Albert J. Gorman presided and Judges John J. Sullivan and Frank Johnston Jr. were among the speakers.

Why City Hall Is Fighting.
"The city hall gang is going to make a desperate effort to win this election," said Mr. Gorman, "for they know that if they lose they are going down the hill and nothing can stop them. To win, they are using every means in their power, and they are assessing every gambler, every saloonkeeper, every policeman, and every city and county employee to raise money with which to buy the victory. How could they expect to elect a ticket of unknown, nondescript lawyers, many of whom on the city hall pay rolls, and how could they expect to defeat a ticket of sitting judges, all known to the people of the county, all with wonderful records on the bench, if they didn't pay the election?"

Wants to Reward Henchmen.
"Ask the city hall," said Judge Anderson. "Ask Thompson and Lundin why they are attempting to force out of office honorable sitting judges with glorious records. Ask them, and there are only two explanations that they can give. First, they want to control the judiciary so they can reward their henchmen and friends and punish their opponents. Second, the circuit court appoints the south park commissioners, and the city hall machine wants control of the board so it can direct the expenditure of many millions of dollars."

Judge Sullivan warned the meeting that the city hall now controls every branch of the city, county, and state government, with the exception of the courts, and that it was now up to the people themselves to decide whether the judiciary should be turned over to them. A victory for the Thompson-Lundin faction now will insure victories in the judicial election of 1922, the county election in 1922, and the mayoralty election in 1923. But a defeat will start the ball down the hill, resulting in the elimination of the city hall machine as a political factor by 1923.

MAYOR THOMPSON'S $1,000,000

SAMUEL E. ERICKSON
CLERK OF THE SUPERIOR COURT
COOK COUNTY, ILLINOIS

CHICAGO, May 5th, 1921.

Notice to Employees of the Superior Court
Clerk's Office:

I have received orders from the Headquarters to make my return of all the tickets for the Republican Jubilee at Riverview Park, on or before May 30th, 1921. Kindly hand in your report before that date.

William F. Hayes
Chief Deputy.

The TRIBUNE herewith presents the first documentary evidence of the truth of the charges that the Thompson-Lundin organization is collecting $1,000,000 for William Hale Thompson by selling tickets for the "Republican Jubilee" in Riverview Park to and through city and county employees and others under obligations to it. It has been charged that Mayor Thompson hopes to realize at least $1,000,000. The letters were received by all of the employees of the Superior court clerk, who is Samuel E. Erickson, a Thompson-Lundin lieutenant. William F. Hayes is a lieutenant of William H. Reid, Thompson leader in the Thirty-first ward. The stationery is official, and bears the names of all the Superior court judges. A petition was recently filed by Austin J. Lynch, city hall "expert" in connection with the Thompson-Lundin organization, to prevent the collection of the enormous fees claimed by Lynch and his fellow "experts." The petition was designed to prevent trial of the suit before judges not under the city hall influence. Thirteen of the judges whose names are on the letterhead were named by Lynch as "prejudiced" against him and the city hall. These judges are Albert C. Barnes, William Fenimore Cooper, William E. Dever, Joseph H. Fitch, Martin M. Gridley, M. L. McKinley, Jacob H. Hopkins, Joseph B. David, Joseph Sabath, John J. Sullivan, Denis E. Sullivan, Harry A. Lewis and John M. O'Connor. The use of their names on a communication designed to influence the county employees to "kick in," carries with it the suggestion that they sanctioned the letter. Of course none of them knew their names appeared on a letterhead used to swell the Thompson million.

MAN WHO SAW 3 WARS WILL LEAD MEMORIAL MARCH

Gen. James E. Stuart, veteran of the civil and Spanish-American wars and until recently commander of the 11th Infantry, I. N. G., will be grand marshal of the Memorial day parade this year.

The marchers, comprising members of the G. A. R., the Spanish War Veterans, the American Legion, the Buick Privates, and numerous other organizations, will move down Michigan avenue from Chicago avenue and be reviewed at the Logan monument by Gov. Emmet Thompson, and other officials. It will be the first year that the line of march has not had to cross a car track.

Gen. Stuart has named Col. Marcus Kavanagh, Gen. Milton J. Foreman, Col. John V. Clinin, and Col. James J. Healy as his staff officers.

JILTED GIRL, 23, LEAPS TO DEATH IN A NIGHT GOWN

New York, May 8.—[Special.]—Ignoring shouts and cries of scores of women on their way to church, Miss Helen Fiedler, 23, singer and pianist, clad only in night gown and bath robe, dropped from the fifth story window of 1110 College avenue, the Bronx, today. She died in the arms of a passer-by before the arrival of an ambulance. For several minutes the throng watching Miss Fiedler hanging to the window shouted. Then her strength gave out and she dropped. In falling her feet struck a lower window ledge which caused her to turn a half somersault. She landed on her head.

According to Mrs. Thomas De

Glacomo, with whom she stopped last night, Miss Fiedler had been jilted and was despondent when she arrived at her home. She was chief clerk in the foreign exchange department of the Irving National bank in the Woolworth building.

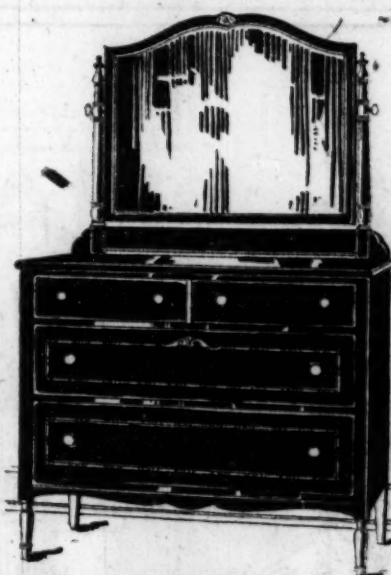

Yesterday, Miss Fiedler left her home in Flatbush, saying she was going for a walk and would be back for dinner. When she did not return Mrs. Modro, accompanied by John Fiedler, the girl's brother, began an all night search.

Instead of returning home, Miss Fiedler went to visit Mrs. De Glacomo at the College avenue address.

"It was 10 o'clock last night" when Helen arrived," said Mrs. De Glacomo today. "When I asked the reason for her visit at such an hour she said she was despondent and unhappy. I asked her why and she said, 'O, I guess you know.' Then she burst into tears."

"This morning I peered through the portieres and saw Helen was not in bed. I heard the screams in the street and ran into the dining room. She was hanging to the window sill. I shouted to her to hold on. As I reached her, she let go and dropped to the street."

CONGRESS TO BE UNDER WATCHFUL EYES OF WOMEN

"Back Capitol" Is Taken Over by Fair Sex.

(BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.) Washington, D. C., May 8.—(Special.)—Women voters have obtained strategic political headquarters directly overlooking congress. The National Woman's party announced today its purchase of the historic Washington house opposite the east entrance of the capitol, already known as the "back capitol," which it will convert into a political watch tower for women.

Meeting Place of Congress. The house, which is on the elevated terrace facing the capitol, was the actual meeting place of congress itself from 1815 to 1819 while the capitol was being rebuilt, and was the scene of President Monroe's inauguration. "It is not merely a headquarters for our party that we plan," said Elsie Hill, chairman of the woman's party, "but an embassy for the women of the nation, a clubhouse where they may stay, a bureau where they can secure information, in short, a center of thought and activity for women and a vantage point from which they may keep congress under perpetual observation."

Ideal Site for Lobbyist. "It is close to the capitol, therefore an ideal site for the lobbyist. It will afford the combination of office and living quarters which makes it possible for the officials and workers of

DR. J. N. FREEMAN, PASTOR OF SEVERAL CHURCHES HERE, DIES

The Rev. John Newton Freeman, who during the last twenty years has occupied the pulpits in many of the Chicago Presbyterian churches, died yesterday at his home, 200 East Pearson street. Funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at the Fourth Presbyterian church, where Dr. Freeman served as pastor on several occasions. Interment will be in Graceland cemetery.

Dr. Freeman was born in Allahabad, India, July 17, 1844. His father was a Presbyterian missionary who was killed in the Sepoy mutiny. Dr. Freeman was graduated from the Princeton Theological seminary in 1867, and besides pulpits in Chicago occupied pastorates in Peekskill, N. Y., Lockport, N. Y., Milwaukee, Denver, and Cleveland.

He is survived by the widow, Mrs. Mary Helen Yoe Freeman, and a daughter, Mrs. Jesse Benedict Carter, who resides in Europe, and three sons, Charles Yoe and John Edgar Freeman of Chicago, and Halstead Gurnee Freeman of New York.

our party to be constantly 'on the job.' If there is a job to be done. When an important bill, such as the one we are to introduce, removing legal disabilities of women, is being pushed, our watch tower will act as a feminine power plant running day and night."

Chicagoan Who Downed 9 Planes to Be Buried Here

The body of Lieut. Joseph B. East, R. A. F., who was killed in an airplane fall in Belgium Dec. 14, 1918, will be brought to Chicago for burial this week. The body arrived in New York on an army transport Saturday. Lieut. East, who was 21 years old, was the son of Mr. and Mrs. David East, 5386 Winthrop avenue. At the outbreak of war he enlisted with the 1st Illinois engineers, but obtained his discharge in order to join the Royal air service. He had nine enemy planes to his credit when killed.

Woman Shoots Alleged Intruder; Booked by Police

Mrs. Anna Hunter, 6044 Blackstone avenue, who is alleged to have shot and seriously wounded Edward Clancy, 2627 Cottage Grove avenue, when he pounded at her door for admission Saturday night, was booked yesterday on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon. Clancy was a witness at the trial of John Lenzy, convicted recently of the killing of Bert Hunter, husband of Mrs. Hunter, and testified for Lenzy. Following the conviction, according to Mrs. Hunter, Clancy had called on her despite her objections.

BITTER CHARGES AGAINST YANKS MADE BY HAITI

Demand for Evacuation to Go to Harding.

[BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.]

Washington, D. C., May 8.—[Special.]—Demanding withdrawal of the American forces occupying the island, the delegates of the Patriotic Union of Haiti have arrived to present tomorrow to President Harding, the state department and congress a report in which the American marines and Haitian gendarmes are accused of committing numerous atrocities not investigated by the Daniels court of inquiry.

The report calls the American occupation the "most terrible régime of military autocracy ever carried on in the great American democracy." The three delegates are H. Paulus Sanson, former Haitian secretary of foreign affairs and former minister to the United States; Stenio Vincent, former president of the Haitian senate, and H. Perceval Thibault, former chargé d'affaires of the Haitian legation in Washington.

What Haitians Demand.
The Haitian people, according to the report, in addition to reparations for the wrongs and injuries done them, demand:

1. Immediate abolition of martial law and courts martial.
2. Immediate reorganization of the Haitian police and military forces, and withdrawal within a short period of the United States military occupation.
3. Abrogation of the convention of 1914.
4. Convocation within a short period of a constituent assembly with all the guarantees of electoral liberty.

Some of the Atrocities.
Among the acts charged against the American occupation of Haiti are:
Kidnaping of $500,000 of Haitian government funds which American marines carried off in broad daylight and took aboard the gunboat Machias, the funds being deposited in a New York bank, to "force the Haitian government to accept control of the custom houses by systematically depriving it of financial resources."

Death of 4,000 prisoners in the prison of Cape Haitien and of 5,475 prisoners at Chabert, an American camp, in the three years 1918-'20.
Administration of water cure and other tortures by American officers and marines, and the commission of "numberless abominable crimes" of which twenty-five cases with names and dates are given in the report.

LITTLE LIGHTNIN'

The fellow who christened the young hippopotamus at Lincoln park zoo once won a bet on a horse named Lightning, and as a result the hippo's name is Little Lightning.

At the suggestion of Constant Reader we are taking up a heavier matter this morning with our Monday class in zoology. Let us present Little Lightning, the baby hippopotamus at Lincoln park zoo. Little Hippo was a bit under the weather when photographed, so we were forced to secure our information of his habits from other sources.

Way back when we first spelled out the name we were informed hippopotamus means river horse. That's the idea. The hips are at home in water or on land. They feed chiefly on grass and aquatic plants, but when pressed are able to prey upon growing crops. Not much danger of that in the park, but the farmer folk of Africa, whence comes the hippo, are all against the practice.

Hips (not the kind that support flasks in these dry days) grow sometimes to twelve and fourteen feet in length and nearly five feet in height. Over in Africa the natives value their teeth for ivory. The flesh, salted, also is said to make a tasty dish called lake cow bacon.

Hippo isn't a sensitive creature. His skin is two inches thick in spots. His short legs boast only four toes, hind being thick skinned, he doesn't mind the shortage in either case. His broad, obtuse muzzle makes him look much like an overgrown pig. Haven't you heard the youngsters at the hippo cage in the park shout, "O, mamma, look at the great big pig?"

On June 19, 1917, revolver in hand, followed by American officers armed with their revolvers, into the Haitian legislative chamber and dissolution by force of the Haitian legislative assembly. Enforced ratification on June 12, 1918, of a new Haitian constitution with marines presiding at the ballot boxes, only ballots bearing the word "yes" being issued.

Exclusion from the naval court of inquiry of "all Haitians who had anything to say regarding the numerous cases of murder, brutality, rape, arson, etc., that is, of Haitians who wished to convince the court of inquiry of the way in which the forces of the occupation had carried out their duty in Haiti."

The report is supplementary to two resolutions calling for congressional investigation of Haitian affairs, one introduced by Senator Hiram Johnson of California, the other by Representative Bland of Indiana.

The naval investigation ordered by Secretary Daniels is characterized as a "joke," and Admiral Knapp is accused of having done "nothing at all" when ordered to investigate.

JAPANESE PRINCE IS HONORED AS BRITISH GENERAL

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]
LONDON, May 8.—The London Observer in an editorial upon the visit of the Japanese crown prince, says today:

"Against renewal of the treaty with Japan there has been only one objection—that raised by some voices in the United States where it is held that an Anglo-Japanese alliance would threaten America's safety."

"Were the facts as some Americans allege them to be, the first anti-American step taken under such a treaty would break up the British empire."

"None of our dominions could nor ever would consent to support any action against the United States in the interests of Japan. What is more, they would be bound actively to resist it."

"The treaty certainly should be renewed, but its intentions must be made clear beyond possibility of dispute."

SAYS DISCOVERY OF AMERICA WAS DUE TO THE JEWS

Baltimore, Md., May 8.—[Special.]—Jewish financiers and Jewish scientists made possible the discovery of America by Columbus, and a Jew was the first known European to set foot on American soil, according to the Rev. Dr. William H. Morgan, pastor of First Methodist Episcopal church.

"The Jews convinced Vasco de Gama of the possibility of sailing around the Cape of Good Hope," Dr. Morgan said. "Columbus studied the astronomical works of Abraham Ibn Ezra. The instrument which he used on his voyage was 'Jacob's Staff,' a quadrant invented by another Jew, Levi Ben Gerson."

"Among the men who accompanied Columbus were six Jews. The whole expedition was made possible by the generosity of two court Jews, who advanced $150,000. It was not the jewels of Isabella but the Jews of Spain who opened up the new world."

like fine motor cars

we wouldn't need to advertise

PERHAPS this very day—at the Blackstone, the Chicago Club, the Board of Trade or at some other gathering place for successful men—you saw and admired a suit of clothes of Royal Tailor making.

But you could not see the Royal Tailor trademark. Hence, you appraised the suit as a $90 to $125 Michigan Avenue tailor creation.

Here lies the big advertising handicap of the tailoring business. You could see and recognize the quality of the suit, but you could not see the mark of the maker.

If the suit had but flashed to you the full story of its price and its origin

—if it had but told you that it cost its wearer exactly $30 made-to-measure—down here at our wholesale plant

—if it had but X-rayed to you the tiny Royal Tailor silk label tucked away in its inner pocket

—today would have found you taking that famous three-block "Economy Walk" to our wholesale tailor shops.

More than eighty thousand of the smartest dressers in Chicago have taken that popular Economy stroll down to our wholesale plant.

You see and admire these Royal Tailored men everywhere. But how can you know they are Royal Tailored, when the maker's name is hidden under layers of cloth and lining?

The answer is, we must advertise to you as we advertised to them

—writing the story of Royal Service on paper, in the hope that later on we may write that story for you in worsted and silk.

Come down here and investigate—as the shrewdest business men in Chicago have done. That is the whole purpose of our advertising.

If you doubt that the finest made-to-order clothes, suit or overcoat, can be purchased for $30 —bring your doubt down here, and make us prove up.

Every visitor to our plant is a guest until he manifests his own inclination to become a customer; you won't be urged to buy until you are convinced.

With pent-up fury the crowd surged forward—"Du Barry! Du Barry!" came from their frenzied throats. They shook their fists menacingly; some hurled missiles at her cringing body, others tried to force their way through the angry mob to crush the life from her sinful body. She heeded them not. Before her was the man of the people she had cast aside for a frivolous life and a false love. She was pleading for forgiveness and for her very existence. And he, struggling between love and duty, wavered—"To the guillotine! To the guillotine!" shouted the angry mob—

THOMPSON DESPERATELY BLOCKING.

Thompson cracked his whip and the city council voted "no" on the proposition of submitting to the voters in the June election the question, "Shall the legislature raise the tax rate of the city of Chicago for current corporate purposes?"

Thompson decided that the people should not vote on that question, and the aldermen carried out his orders. Thompson will give the citizens tax bills as he pleases.

Several weeks ago he cracked his whip and the state senate voted "no" on a resolution for a legislative inquiry to ascertain how much money Chicago honestly needs for municipal purposes. Thompson would not permit the legislature to discover how money is being spent, and he would not permit the people to vote on the tax rate which they must pay.

He also petitions, through a subordinate, to have the fee suits brought by THE TRIBUNE to force the restitution of money paid building experts taken from fifteen judges of the Superior court on the ground that these judges are too prejudiced to give a fair trial to the mayor of the city and his subordinate defendants.

Thompson and Lundin are on the defensive, dodging, ducking, and stalling. They are having some trouble with their bumblebee about the people ruling. They are having trouble explaining where the tax money goes. They are having a great deal of trouble explaining $30,000 fees to traction attorneys and $1,000,000 fees to building experts.

The people know that the reason the tax rate goes up each year, leaving a deficit to be met by bond issues, is because a number of insiders in the city hall or of the city hall affiliation are getting rich. That is where the money is going, and there is no bottom to that hole.

The money is not going to give conscientious city employees pay for their work. They are not getting any consideration. The money is going to insiders. It is being dissipated in politics and the fees cases show how it is being taken.

Thompson was afraid to have the legislature investigate. He is afraid to allow the people to vote. He is afraid to allow the Superior court to try THE TRIBUNE cases.

He is on the defensive, with all his control exerted to its utmost to block inquiries and investigations. He'll find that there are some holes in his walls which cannot be stopped up.

FOR THE GIRL IN THE CITY.

This week the Young Women's Christian association will appeal to the public for a subscription of $27,000. That is the amount by which it is estimated the income of the association will fall short of its expenditures during 1921. Nothing is asked for expansion, as the association has taken into account business conditions and proposes merely to carry on its work on the present basis.

The work of the association deserves public support and should be expanded, if not now, as soon as conditions permit. In 1920 the association served 38,464 young women through its educational classes, swimming pools, gymnasium, room registry bureau, boarding homes, industrial clubs, and girl reserve corps.

This is constructive work. Chicago needs and invites young women to come to the city and help carry on its activities. They are sought in industry, business, the arts and the professions, and their numbers are constantly increasing. The community to which they contribute so much owes them proper conditions. It is especially important that the girl who comes to the city alone and without family connections or friends should have help in placing herself in wholesome surroundings, in finding the right sort of recreation and means for education and self advancement. The association placed 3,666 girls in desirable homes last year. It provided clubs and evening classes in millinery, dressmaking, stenography, singing, etc., for girls in industry; besides restaurants, libraries, and recreation centers where 106,656 were served during the year.

The appeal of the association is moderate and supported by a record of useful service for years. It should receive generous response.

GREAT BRITAIN, JAPAN AND THE U. S. A.

The London Spectator, which to Americans is the friendliest of publications, says that the British empire would risk its continuity if the British government made an alliance with Japan which was used against the United States.

The Spectator says that such a step would drive Canada to the United States and split Australia, New Zealand, and South Africa from the empire. The United States has no better journalistic friend in any foreign country than the Spectator in London. It endeavors constantly to make British perceptions see American opinions and acts sympathetically and intelligently.

It is the sort of a friend to protest against an alliance between Great Britain and Japan which would be directed against the United States. (We do not believe that if there were a renewal of the alliance the British would permit even the assumption that it could be directed against America, but we do believe that the British will be guided in succeeding years by the attitude the United States adopts toward Great Britain.)

The United States does not base its policy upon alliances, but the British do. Powerful as the United States is, it stands alone, and it will stand alone, but it need not stand without friends. Power invites alliances against it. The counter check is in other alliances. These methods are outside our diplomacy. The United States could alienate every other nation, as Germany virtually did. The world was ready to combine against Germany and did. We hope the United States will not so bungle in its isolation that if it meets an emergency it will be in the bad books of every other nation.

There are American and British interests in common, and without alliances or even without direct understandings they can be protected and advanced. So long as they are the peace of the English speaking world is fairly well protected against disaster.

WHAT IF WE HAVE NO GRAIN MARKET?

Two letters appearing today in the Voice of the People department concerning bills now before the Illinois legislature for restriction of the Chicago Board of Trade reveal a point of view worthy of comment. Both writers—William C. Kelsey of Orland, Ill., and James W. Long of Glenview—assume that the marketing plan designed by the farmers to supplant the present marketing machinery is certain of success.

What if it fails? Students of the proposed legislation insist that if it passed it will virtually put our Board of Trade out of business. If then the substitute machinery designed by the farmers fails to function successfully the grain producers will find themselves in difficulties.

This is a point which should not be overlooked by legislators from rural districts who are favoring the bills under pressure from their constituents without regard to the probable results of such legislation.

If the farmers are left holding the bag they will not forgive the men who passed the law. The fact that many farmers advocated the measures will not absolve from responsibility their representatives charged with the task of studying proposed legislation on its merits and supporting that which will be to the advantage, not the disadvantage, of their constituents. It is a responsibility which the legislators cannot escape by attempting to pass the buck back to the public. If they destroy the present marketing system and a substitute is provided which does not meet requirements, it will mean a loss of hundreds of millions of dollars. Every line of production, industrial, and commercial activity in the state would then suffer, and the blame could rest in but one place, the legislature.

No reasonable person objects to the development of a farmers' marketing organization if it is based on sound economic laws and business experience. But it is doubtful that such an organization can spring, perfect, from the heads of farm bureau managers. Too many problems are to be met. They must be overcome gradually. If this is done and the system proves its value by the elimination of expense in marketing, with larger proportional returns to the producer and lower costs to the consumer, there will be no need for legislation to restrict the Board of Trade. So far, at least as the farmer is concerned, the evils he complains of cannot reach him.

Until such a system is perfected it is folly to destroy or cripple a marketing machine which now handles the raw product from producer to consumer at a rate which is generally less than that required for the marketing of any other line of products.

INTEREST ON STATE MONEY.

Under the state administrative code officials whose power and tenure are derived from law are required to make a return of interest on public money every ten days. The constitutional officers are not required to do this. They may hold money as long as three months without an accounting for the earning power of that money. Very large sums are handled by the constitutional officers and there is a loss of interest by the state. These leaks make government more expensive. They are injurious to such administration as would relieve the taxpayer. There is a bill in the legislature to make all officials comply with the ten day requirement. It is being opposed and may not pass. Citizens might be interested to inquire why it should not pass and why interest on state money should not be drawn at once by the state. What explanation of opposition can be given?

PUNISH THE BUILDING CONSPIRATORS.

Evidence has been placed in the hands of the Daley legislative committee investigating charges of graft and conspiracy in building operations in Chicago to the effect that a new conspiracy has been promoted in the very face of the inquiry. The Chicago District Council of Carpenters is alleged to have attempted to induce millwork manufacturers to sign a new agreement which would bar the use of any millwork in Chicago district buildings which did not bear the stamp of the union.

"It is almost inconceivable," said Chairman Daley, "that while this investigation was at its height, while the federal grand jury was voting indictments, and while both sides were promising us to devise remedies for existing evils, union agents should attempt to enter into another contract restraining trade."

It is not inconceivable. It is the natural result of a long period of unpunished contempt of law and justice. There is only one way to remedy the situation. That is to rush prosecution and put the guilty in jail. That and that alone will develop the respect for the law and the committee which is necessary to improve building conditions.

Editorial of the Day

CAMP ROOSEVELT GOOD PLACE FOR BOYS.

[Des Moines Capital.] Iowa should be well represented at Camp Roosevelt this summer. This training camp for high school boys is open to any American youth of good character who is 12 years of age or older. It is supported by the war department and the Chicago board of education. The entire cost to educate is about $1 a day. All other costs of maintaining the camp are paid by the government, the Chicago school board, and the Camp Roosevelt association.

This is an ideal summer outing for healthy and ambitious American boys. Many courses are offered in the summer high school and there is splendid opportunity for vocational training. There is also a special scoutmaster division. Credits received at the camp apply on any high school course, by arrangement with the Chicago schools.

The camp offers all kinds of athletic sports and military training. An army officer—Capt. F. L. Heale—is in charge.

Camp Roosevelt is located at Muskegon, Mich. The registration headquarters are at room 403, 626 South Clark street, Chicago. Camp Roosevelt is all that its name implies.

His proper place. President Harding might have worked in that Chicago "cousin" in the diplomatic service somewhere—preferably Mexico.—Minneapolis Journal.

QUESTIONS. As you read the field of Great Beyond, As you skim the lightest of Great Beyond, Do you sometimes wish you could turn time back To your happy mortal days?

Do you sometimes think, with a sigh perhaps, Of the days when, hand in hand, We strayed on the beach by the silver sea, And played in the golden sand?

Are there times when you dream, as I do, dear, Of that stormy winter-day, We stood in the bow of the great white ship— Washed, drenched, by the flying spray?

Do your thoughts never wander from those fields To that flower-sprinkled plain, Where we pitched our tent by the rushing stream And forgot that man was vain?

Are those scenes so peaceful as we are told? Are you happy, as I am?

Is your heart content upon those hills? Or, Do you sometimes think of me?

How to Keep Well. By Dr. W. A. Evans.

Questions pertinent to hygiene, sanitation, and prevention of disease, if matters of general interest, will be answered in this column. Where space will not permit, or the subject is not suitable, letters will be personally answered subject to proper limitations, and where a stamped, addressed envelope is inclosed. Dr. Evans will not make diagnosis or prescribe for individual disease. Requests for such service cannot be answered.

When she consented to give up a pet guinea pig she was quickly cured and she stayed cured.

So many cases of so-called eczema results from work poisons. Especially is this true of eczema of the hands. Dr. Evans tells of a dentist who had eczema of his hands due to the use of poison in his work. Dr. Evans reported cases of eczema of the hands, again by dentists, and Dr. Ormsby and Mitchell report other dentists who got eczema from using novocaine. Quinine eczemas have long been known.

Men who work in certain kinds of woods are very apt to develop eczema because the wood dust is poisonous to them. In fact, if we include these occupational eruptions in the grab bag called eczema, we will find that more than half of the cases are due to poisoning with some substance not ordinarily regarded as poisons.

Happy writes: "I am a young man of 21. Am 5 feet 6 inches tall and weigh 155 pounds. Is that the right weight and height for 21 years?"

"I would like to have some exercises on chest and shoulder and expanding muscular development."

"I have a diet for fattening, kindly let me have it."

REPLY. 1. One hundred and thirty-six pounds is about right for your age and height. Some belong to families in which the men are large. Some belong to families in which the men are small. Such factors must be considered.

2. Row, swim, wrestle, and exercise on bars.

3. You are nineteen pounds overweight. Why fatten more?

HAVE THROAT EXAMINED. Miss D. F. writes: "For a week I have not been able to swallow anything hard. I had my tonsils cut two years ago. The inside of my throat is red and swollen. Sometimes I can hardly catch my breath. Can you tell me the cause?"

REPLY. No case of sore throat should be neglected for so long a time. If the infection is due to the diphtheria bacillus the need is even greater. Have your throat attended to at once.

SWAT, SWAT, SWAT FLIES. A. L. W. writes: "By reason of the midwinter, the midwest in many years, we will have more than the usual number of filthy house flies this summer. Will you mention before long the advantage of beginning early to swat the fly?"

REPLY. Thanks for the suggestion. It is important. We must begin fighting flies early in the season if we are to make headway. Swatting gets results at the beginning and ending of the fly season. It is not worth much in between. I will act on the suggestion.

DANGERS OF SOFT COAL. Chicago, May 2.—(Friend of the People.)—The danger of fire through spontaneous combustion of soft coal in the mine run soft coal in the basement of an ordinary two flat building?

M. C. G. We have had several fires in basements of buildings where soft coal has been stored. The danger is not a new one. During the war, when all the soft coal was shipped into Chicago contained considerable quantities of soft coal piled too high from spontaneous ignition.

However, if thirty tons of mine run soft coal are stored in a basement, and if possible not in pile over four or five feet high and not within twenty-four inches of any boiler, furnace, or steam pipes, the possibility of fire is not a danger.

However, it is impossible to absolutely predict that even piling as suggested will absolutely prevent fire.

J. C. McDONNELL, Chief, Bureau of Fire Prevention and Public Safety.

ALIEN CLAIMED EXEMPTION. Chicago, May 4.—(Friend of the Soldier.)—If a person who had not the first papers in time of war claimed exemption on the ground of being an alien, but subsequent to armistice day did take out his first papers, is such person barred forever from becoming a full fledged citizen for the above-stated reason, or is he deprived of filing a petition for citizenship for a certain period of time?

O. E. B. Under the circumstances referred to the alien is not forever barred from becoming a citizen. He may file a petition two years after he has made a declaration of intention. The court will determine whether he shall be naturalized.

FRED J. SCHULTZ, Chief, Naturalization Examiner.

CHANGE STOVES. Chicago, May 4.—(To the Legal Friend of the People.)—Has a tenant the right to replace a stove in a rented flat, substituting a stove of their own? The stove owned by the tenant is in a better condition than the one furnished by the owner of the building. The owner does not want to change stoves.

C. M. D. The owner probably has some ground for his objection other than that stated. We could advise to better advantage if that ground were stated.

MEMORY TESTS Can You Answer These?

ASTRONOMY. 1. How many moons has Mars? 2. How long does it take Saturn to make one revolution upon its axis? 3. How many moons has Saturn? 4. How many of our years does it take Uranus to revolve once around the sun? 5. What difference is there between the moons of Uranus and other moons? 6. To how many moons is Neptune entitled?

7. What does "Aphelion" mean? 8. What is "Perihelion"? 9. What is the axis of the heavens? 10. What is "centripetal force"?

ETIQUETTE-ANSWERS. 1. For how long does a widow wear deep mourning? Customarily for two years.

2. Are little children put into mourning? Usually not.

3. How long after the death of a relative is it customary to refrain from social activities? For at least six months.

4. Should one read a letter in the presence of a friend without first asking permission? It is more courteous to ask permission.

5. Is it polite to whisper in company? Definitely no. We have this etiquette rule from George Washington on the subject. He wrote: "Whisper not in the company of others."

6. With which hand does a man raise his hat in greeting some one on the street? The hat is raised with the hand farthest from the person saluted.

7. Is it proper to leave a person abruptly? Never leave a friend suddenly on the street without a brief apology.

8. Can a gentleman under any circumstances "cut" a lady who has bowed to him? No.

9. If a girl walking with a man greets a friend whom the man does not know, should the man raise his hat to the stranger? Yes.

10. Should a man ever pass before a girl without apology? No; he should always say "Sorry," or some other light word of excuse.

Marabou Scarfs

SOFT, very becoming and light in weight, a Marabou Scarf or Cape is sufficiently warm to wear in the Spring.

The Neckwear Section is showing a variety of styles in Capes and Scarfs, in all marabou and marabou and ostrich combined. Marabou, $5.50 to $37—Ostrich and Marabou, $6.75 to $45.

Hemstitched Linen Handkerchiefs, 20c and 25c

THIS special event offers Handkerchiefs of the better qualities of sheer and medium weight linen, at 20c. With embroidered corners and colored borders, some initialed, at 25c. The price is made possible by slight defects of manufacturing that are scarcely noticeable.

These are very much below the ordinary cost.

Tweed and Cheviot Sports Suits, Special $27.50

ALTHOUGH you can hardly believe it, the Suits at this price are made of excellent wool tweed, fully lined with silk, and conform to our high standard of quality. The various styles and colors will appeal strongly to athletic women. Very rich and smart are the tweed mixtures of cadet blue and heather shades in true sports style. The model at left is of that fabric—the other of cheviot is the other style, shown in tan, henna, and royal blue.

They Are Well Designed and Carefully Made

The price alone is enough of an inducement, while the Suits themselves are so desirable that you will not want to miss the chance of procuring one.

"WHAT'S NEW AT FIELDS"

"The Owl and the Pussy Cat"

THIS well-known but strangely-mated pair are both here—each carved in wood and forming the handle of a very smart new Sun-and-rain Umbrella. There are others, too, of these interesting carved imported handles—a gargoyles, for instance, and some curious reproductions of old sword hilts.

First Floor, South, State.

Packing Up

THE day comes when piles of snowy lingerie are laid away in the bride's trunk. How exquisitely will lie among them a set or two of these dainty things, so very new for Summer wear—Nightgowns, Envelopes, Chemises, Vests and Bloomers, of fine crossbar voile. Their trimmings are insets of embroidery, Valenciennes pattern and real silk laces, bewitching little silk flowers and dainty two-tone picot ribbons.

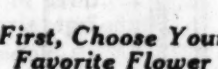

Fifth Floor, South, State.

Rice and Ribbon

THERE are moments, tradition insists, when the bride's luggage becomes the focus of unwelcome and even somewhat embarrassing attention. Then it is she is glad, at least, that it is luggage to be proud of. New black leather Traveling Bags, Hand Bags, fitted Cases and Purses are smartly lined with red leather. Other very beautiful Purses and Card Cases are of colored ecru and other fine leathers.

First Floor, Middle, Wabash.

First, Choose Your Favorite Flower

TO slip in your hand-bag are these cunning little glass Perfume Vials with stoppers. At first it's very puzzling to know just why the little colored flowers inside do not get wet with perfume. The secret is, of course, there is an inner glass tube that holds the latter. These are 50c. Just choose the flower you like best and then match it to perfume.

First Floor, North, State.

The Post Mark Was Paris

AND a package bearing that magic name is always sure to contain something interesting. When this was opened it revealed the most exquisite new silk Stockings with Chantilly lace inserts, beautifully fine and cobwebby. In black and white, they are among the loveliest of the new things.

First Floor, North, State.

In Summer's Train

DAINTY little silken flowers are found nestling in all sorts of odd nooks and folds of Summer Apparel—on wraps, frocks, lingerie or sunshades—everywhere their gracious presence enhances.

Singly or in bouquets and garlands, these little flowers may be found made of colored or silver and gold ribbon.

Down from the Northern Seas, with the breaking up of the vast ice-fields, great herds of Seals flock to the islands off the coast of Alaska. Each year, within almost a day of the same time, they come for a few weeks, and then disappear into distances unpenetrated by man. Where from, where to, remains a mystery! During the period of their stay the Government takes a limited number, the skins of which are packed in salt and sent to St. Louis, where they are dressed and dyed, and where twice a year a Government auction is held.

HOT FIGHT OVER REDISTRICTING OF ILLINOIS BREWING

BY E. O. PHILLIPS.

Springfield, Ill., May 8.—[Special.]—Congressional reapportionment of Illinois will take a spurt this week and an interesting row between congressmen at Washington and the map makers at Springfield is looked for.

This prediction is made as a result of a secret conference held here Friday night and yesterday. It broke up with the understanding that an effort will be made to report from the senate committee the pending Wright bill that recasts the state into twenty-seven districts and abolishes the jobs of the present two congressmen at-large, former Gov. Yates and former Senator Mason.

The congressional delegation at Washington, it is reported, is solidly against the bill, and several have been wiring frantically to Springfield to try to stop action here. Only one district is not touched by the Wright map, that of Congressman Graham, comprising the military tract counties.

All the rest of the districts are handed without any particular attention to the present representatives. It is known that the theory of the bill, frankly, is to redistrict the state upon a flat basis of population without bothering at all about the prospects or the past of any congressman.

The senate has the board of trade bills on hand and will dispose of them possibly Wednesday. The chances increase that the bills will not pass the senate.

The house revenue committee expects to get something started Tuesday on the revenue bills that fix the tax rates in Chicago and the rest of the state. The house organization claims that it will have a definite report from the city hall as to what city tax rate should be fixed.

BY REV. G. A. MACWHORTER.

Mme. Curie will be the guest of Chicago next month. There will be a large reception in her honor at the Art Institute, and she will receive honorary degrees from both the University of Chicago and Northwestern university.

College women of America are seeking to raise $100,000 to purchase a gram of radium, which Mme. Curie and her late husband discovered some years ago. Mme. Curie has no radium with which to conduct further experiments, and she is coming to this country to receive the gift on invitation of American college women.

A letter received by Mrs. Annie Peake Kenney, 1438 Hyde Park boulevard, who is in charge of the Mme. Curie radium fund in Chicago, reads: "I am sending you $100 to help to buy the thimbleful of radium for this noble woman. I haven't long to live, as I am dying with cancer, and this $100, with the exception of enough insurance to pay my funeral expenses, is all that I have in the world. But if Mme. Curie, through her experiments with radium, can discover a cure for cancer, it will be a blessing to women the world over. This contribution isn't much, but it may encourage others, and I am sure Mme. Curie will know what to do with the radium when she gets it."

PHTHISIS EXHIBIT TO EDUCATE THE STATE PLANNED

[BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.]

Springfield, Ill., May 8.—[Special.]—A pilgrimage unique in state medical annals starts tomorrow from Springfield to demonstrate concretely the why and how of public tuberculosis sanitarium.

Fifty Illinois counties have voted to operate under the Glavin sanitarium law, but because of lack of the first hand knowledge of how to construct and operate these institutions, the projects are in all sorts of stages of development.

The Illinois Tuberculosis association, of which Dr. George Thomas Palmer of Springfield is the president, proposes to carry this intelligence directly to the counties.

A Caravan of Knowledge.

Beginning with an inspection of the plants at Springfield tomorrow a special train will carry nearly 100 representatives from each of these fifty counties on an inspection trip of those sanitarium already in successful operation. There will be a baggage car, equipped with chairs, blackboard, exhibit material and stereopticon, which will be used as a classroom during the pilgrimage.

During the trip there will be conducted a series of conferences covering every phase of institutional development of county tuberculosis work.

On Monday the party inspects the Homestead and the Springfield open air colony, St. John's sanitarium at Riverton, and the dispensary of the Springfield Tuberculosis association.

Going to Other Plants.

Tuesday will be spent inspecting the Fairview sanitarium and the McLean county plant at Bloomington.

Wednesday will be occupied at the Ottawa tuberculosis sanitarium, the La Salle county tuberculosis sanitarium, and the Illinois Valley hospital.

The party will be at Peoria on Thursday, with a side trip to Maclean to visit the Tazewell county sanitarium. On Friday morning the train will be at Bushnell inspecting the McDonough county institution and in the afternoon at Quincy to go through the Adams county plant.

The party reaches Jacksonville Saturday morning to visit the Morgan county sanitarium, the Jacksonville open air school and the Morgan county tuberculosis dispensary. The pilgrimage ends at Springfield Saturday night.

WOLL ATTACKS GARY AS SIRE OF LABOR UNREST

Cincinnati, O., May 8.—The recent proposal of Chairman E. H. Gary of the United States Steel corporation for governmental regulation of labor unions is but another attempt to "keep in continual subjection and enslavement the wage earners," Matthew Woll, president of the International Photo Engravers' union, declared in an official statement sent out to the members of his organization which was made public here tonight.

Mr. Woll, who is a vice president of the American Federation of Labor and a member of the federation executive council in session here, warned the workers that "Mr. Gary has in mind nothing more nor less than the extension of existing anti-trust and anti-combination laws and a relentless enforcement of such laws to prevent the effective functioning of the trade unions, without disturbing capital."

"Mr. Gary disclaims he is a believer in Socialism," continued the labor leader, "yet no one is giving greater momentum to this movement than he and his kind."

FRIEND AND FOE OF SALES TAX TO MEET THIS WEEK

(By a Staff Correspondent.)
Washington, D. C., May 8.—(Special.)—Supporters and opponents of the sales tax will lock horns before the senate finance committee this week. On the outcome of this argument may depend in large measure the fate of the sales tax legislation. Failure to obtain a favorable committee recommendation will mean scarcely any chance for the approval by congress of a general sales tax. There is little likelihood that the house ways and means committee will favor it, hence the fate of the proposition rests largely upon the senate committee.

The opening of the battle over tax legislation at the present session. The hearings are to be held in advance of the action by the house, although technically the legislation must originate there.

Want to Enlighten All.
The program contemplates consideration of the chief controversial points by the senate committee at this time in order that its members may be fully informed upon general matters of policy when the revenue bill comes over from the house probably in July.

Advocates of a sales tax will be heard at tomorrow's hearing while opponents are scheduled for Tuesday, when, among others, R. G. Elliott of Chicago, representing the National Association of Credit Men, will speak.

Failure by Secretary of Treasury Mellon to approve a general sales tax has given the movement a setback. Supporters, however, have by no means given up the fight and believe their position is strengthened rather than otherwise by the estimates of probable revenue and expenditures as submitted by the secretary.

Revenue estimates under the present law, and also estimates of probable expenditures, are less favorable than was anticipated, with the result that the possibility of repealing objectionable taxes without providing substitutes no longer seems to exist.

See Need for Sales Tax.
Because of this situation and the impossibility of providing any substantial relief for small taxpayers under Secretary Mellon's program for tax revision, advocates of a sales tax contend that there is all the more reason for adopting an entirely new tax which will yield a substantial amount of revenue.

Adoption of a general sales tax, it is pointed out, offers the only possible way of reducing the normal tax on individual incomes or increasing the personal exemptions.

Secretary Mellon, when called before the finance committee, will elaborate his views on the sales tax. In his letter to chairmen of the senate and house committees recently, he merely stated that he is not prepared to recommend a general sales tax. His view is that the issue lies between a sales tax and a progressive income tax.

NEW PROCESS OF MAKING STEEL OMITS PIG IRON

(Chicago Tribune-New York Times Cable.)
[Copyright: 1921.]
PARIS, May 8.—(By wire.)—The French inventor, M. Basset, announces he has solved the problem of economical production of steel direct from iron without the expensive pig iron middle process. He claims to be able to produce steel in five hours.

The Martin tomorrow will publish an article by Charles Nordman, the scientist, setting forth the Basset claims. Nordman makes the point that the extensive use of Basset's process, which utilizes low grade coal, of which France possesses a great deal, would end the necessity for the importation of coke.

Loaded with Carbon.
"At present steel metallurgy all over the world," Nordman writes, "consists in mixing in powerful blast furnaces alternate layers of oxide, iron, and coke. From the blast furnace, at the end of its work, we get the pig iron, brittle and unusable because it is loaded with carbon. It is then necessary to separate this pig iron from its carbon by a second operation—that of converters—which at last give forth real steel."

"All efforts up to the present to produce steel direct in one single operation have failed. When carbon burns in the oxygen of the air or of the iron ore, it emits some 2,500 calories of heat per kilogram."

Forms Carbonic Acid.
"When this oxide carbon burns, in turn forming carbonic acid, it emits 5,600 additional calories of heat."

"But carbonic acid at a high temperature burns iron, giving the iron part of its oxygen, and it is for this reason that into the blast furnace must be placed an excess of carbon which will take up more quickly than the iron the oxygen that the carbonic acid emits in formation."

"And that is the reason why when one seeks to turn all the mineral in the blast furnace into iron ore one gets only pig iron."

AMERICAN ROADS OF REMEMBRANCE STIRS NATION

Organizations in Many States Register.

(BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.)
Washington, D. C., May 8.—[Special.]—Applications for registration of memorial trees on the national honor roll are arriving at the headquarters of the American Forestry association. One of the first to come in from Chicago as a result of the campaign for roads of remembrance by THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE is from the Bibliophile club with offices in the Transportation building. M. A. Winship asks for the details.

The association, to register a tree on its honor roll, wants the date of the planting or dedication, the name of the individual for whom the tree is planted and the organization doing the planting. In return the association sends without charge a certificate of registration showing the tree has been enrolled.

Wisconsin City Registers.
Another registration comes today from Mrs. Anna Pearce of the Service Star legion of Milton, Wis., who makes application in the name of the Randolph unit of the legion. Mrs. D. W. Thompson of Ames, Neb., registers three trees for Roscoe B. Rhodes, Arthur E. Stuckey, and Ora D. Amesbury, the heroes of that town.

Mrs. J. F. Weinmann, Arkansas state president of the United States Daughters of 1812, wrote the association yesterday asking for information in regard to the roads of remembrance plan, saying she had read of the tree planting in the memorial walk here by Mrs. Harding and Mrs. McCormick.

"Daughters" Favor Memorial.
In session here last week the Daughters adopted the resolution of Mrs. Caldwell of Canton for roads of remembrance. The general federation of women's clubs of the District of Columbia yesterday voted for the oak as the national tree and forwarded its choice to the association which is taking a nationwide referendum on what shall be the tree most typical of America.

World War Hero Slain

by St. Louis Policeman

St. Louis, Mo., May 8.—Bernard Manning, twice gassed during the St. Mihiel and Argonne battles, was shot and instantly killed here tonight by a policeman, who had arrested him on suspicion of having been implicated in a holdup. The policeman said his prisoner attempted to escape, when he shot him.

RAIL WAGE AND TRADE BOARDS TO THE DISCARD?

Talk of Legislation to Abolish Both.

(BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.)
Washington, D. C., May 8.—[Special.]—A movement to abolish the railroad wage board as now constituted and to substitute a board composed of men selected by the President without regard for their business affiliations will assume form in connection with the investigation of railroad conditions to be started Tuesday by the senate committee on interstate commerce.

It is believed by senators antagonistic to the present board that President Harding will throw his influence with them, and that in the legislation framed to improve the transportation system the board will pass out of existence.

The movement is understood to have the backing of the railroad corporations, as the men behind it in the senate are known to be friendly to railroad interests, which is the basis for the assertion that what is desired most is to get rid of the representatives of labor on the board.

Board to Be Nonfactual.

The proposition to be brought forward will be to create an entirely new board, all the members of which will be representatives of the public, instead of three each representing the railroad managers and railroad employees, and three representing the general public. It is charged that the board thus far has been hampered by class consciousness, which has delayed decisions and prevented in some instances fair consideration of the public's interest.

Along with the underground movement against the wage board, and engineered by the same administration representatives in the senate, is one to abolish the federal trade commission. The commission has many enemies among the great business interests. The fight between it and the meat packers has extended over a number of years.

Fight on Trade Commission.
Undoubtedly the commission will be strongly defended by all who advocate government regulation of business enterprises and operations, but its enemies are counting upon the aid of President Harding, and they think the President's influence in the first year of the administration will be sufficient to accomplish their purpose.

The President's declaration that there must be more business in government and less government in business is now construed to mean that he will support any legislation which tends to remove restraints from business.

Abolition of the shipping board is also planned by senators close to the administration, but this action, if taken, will be based upon economic reasons only. No one claims that the shipping board has been a success, and some other method of controlling the government's great maritime interests will not be seriously objected to.

SEIZE TWO; HUNT OTHERS IN WRECK OF "KATY" TRAIN

Memphis, Tenn., May 8.—Two men were held tonight on the secret docket by police and other arrests, the authorities said, might follow as a result of the wreck last midnight of the "Sunshine Special," passenger train west-bound on the Missouri Pacific railway at Almont, Ark., twenty miles from here. The men claim they are farmers and knew nothing of the wreck.

John Slocum, fireman of Little Rock, Ark., was pinned beneath his engine and almost instantly killed. R. D. Kellogg, engineer, Robert Scott, and C. B. Walker, railway mail clerks, suffered minor injuries.

According to railway officials, the engine at Almont had been opened, the switch lamps had been extinguished, and newspapers wrapped around the lamps to hide them. The train ran into the siding and jumped the track.

QUALITY IS THE BASIS OF TRIBUNE ADVERTISING

"Circumstances!"

-exclaimed Napoleon

THIS is the story of the thing which has been done that could not be done.

It has a direct application to every business of national proportions in America: it answers questions like these:

"What is the saturation point in the market for my product?"

"Because business in general is bad must my business be bad?"

"Must I wait for things to pick up or can I make things pick up?"

Five years ago The Literary Digest had reached the limit of its possible circulation in the judgment of many thoughtful observers.

"Fiction magazines can go farther," they said, "for ten readers seek amusement to every one who thinks. But a weekly of news comment and public opinion cannot hope for more than 500,000 circulation: that is a maximum."

Business still wavered in uncertainty at that time. Only the few understood that uncertainty is opportunity for courage and for faith.

The Literary Digest, rejecting the counsel of timidity and doubt, entered upon the largest, most costly campaign ever undertaken by a magazine to widen its market—a campaign of continuous national advertising involving the expenditure of more than one million dollars a year.

Its circulation when the advertising began was 485,930.

In nine months the circulation was 655,030. The advertising continued.

In eighteen months the circulation was 950,000. The advertising continued.

Today the circulation is 1,300,000, and The Literary Digest continues its advertising.

What obstacle can any manufacturer ever encounter that The Literary Digest has not encountered in this five-year period?

Strikes? The typesetters of New York walked out in a body, suspending hundreds of magazines. The Literary Digest photographed typewritten pages, printed more copies than ever, and increased its advertising.

Shortage of raw materials? Often with less than two hours' supply of paper on hand, defying blizzards and freight embargoes, with fleets of motor trucks battling their way through storms and night over frozen roads, The Literary Digest managed still to appear on the newsstands on time; and continued its advertising.

Panic? The lean, hard months of last Fall and Winter did not once interrupt the week-by-week schedule of the campaign. And in April of this year, while many businesses held back, waiting for the turn, The Literary Digest went out to meet the turn.

At the rate of four hundred thousand a day, eleven million circular letters went into the mails in April, addressed to the business and professional men and women of America. A $300,000 circulation-building investment by which, in April, 1921, The Literary Digest gave practical evidence of its faith that intelligent America is ready now to buy. The return mails brought emphatic proof that the faith was justified. And it continues its advertising.

With what result?

The circulation of The Literary Digest is larger today than at any period in its history.

It will be larger this Summer than in any previous Summer; it will be larger this Fall than in any previous Fall. To imagine that there are only 500,000 or 1,000,000 or 2,000,000 families of Literary Digest quality in America is grossly to underrate America.

And buying power, as it reasserts itself in America, will come from these homes first.

The merchant, the executive, the banker and professional man, and their wives—the ten per cent who set the example—are buying now, today.

It is only commonsense to advertise continuously to those who are in a position to respond. This is logic; it is sane business; it is economy; it is the direct road to renewed prosperity.

The courageous will take their faith in their hands and begin. The timid will be deterred for a time by circumstances!

"Circumstances," exclaimed Napoleon, "I make circumstances!"

WEEK'S RESULTS IN BUILDING WAR: BOTH SIDES WIN

Men Idle, Employers Say;
Working, Unions Claim.

With both sides claiming victory, the second week of the building trades lockout started today.

Officials of the Associated Builders and the Building Construction Employers' association declare the lockout is becoming tighter each day, and that by the end of the week not more than 5 per cent of the building trades mechanics will be at work.

The claims of the employers are denied by Thomas S. Kearney, head of the Building Trades council, who asserts that reports from union business agents show that less than 20 per cent of the men are idle as a result of the tieup.

Men Busy on Small Jobs.

"For the last two years there have been no large buildings erected," Mr. Kearney said. "When the lockout was ordered the only large building being constructed in the loop was the Federal Reserve Bank building."

"The workmen who were at first laid off because of the lockout have found work with small contractors in the outlying districts, who have agreed to pay the regular scale of $1.25 an hour."

"The only thing that will hamper the work on apartment buildings and small homes now is the gradual closing of the building material yards."

Mike Drivers Get Verdict Tomorrow.

The milk wagon drivers' union expects to receive a final decision tomorrow on its proposed one day off in seven plan from the Illinois Milk Dealers' association. It is understood a majority of the members of the association are in favor of giving the drivers the day off. A number of small milk dealers already have signed the new agreement.

The Master Bakers' club is standing pat on the proposed wage cut of $5 a week for bakery wagon drivers. The union met last night and voted to fight the reduction.

Birthday; Loses Money, Then Self; Police Get Him

Saturday was George Diesel's twelfth birthday anniversary and having been given $3 by his mother, he decided to celebrate. He lost himself and was found yesterday at Ohio and Clark streets by Joseph Haeger, juvenile officer of the Juvenile Detention home. He was said to be an "old-timer." All he could remember, he said, was that he once lived at 2114 Pearl street. Taken there, the neighborhood was unfamiliar, he declared.

"It was my birthday Saturday," he told Mr. Haeger, "and my mother gave me $3. I went fishing and lost $1.03. Now I'm lost."

Two Little Lost Sheep Are Led Back to Homes

Slava Majcic was lost, but she remembered she must not cry because she was wearing her new white dress and Sunday shoes. At Maxwell and Halsted streets she came upon a boy about her age, 4, rubbing his knuckles to his streaming eyes. "I want to go home, mamma," he cried. The sound was too much for her, and Slava, too, sobbed. A policeman finally led Willie Specter home to 1253 South Peoria street, and took Slava to her mother at 1620 West 21st street.

WIFE WINS YEAR'S FIGHT TO BURY HUSBAND'S BODY

After a year's fight Mrs. Theresa McAteer of 309 South Paulina street, last week brought back the body of her husband, William F. McAteer, from Wilmington, Del., where he died in June, 1920. The funeral services were held Friday.

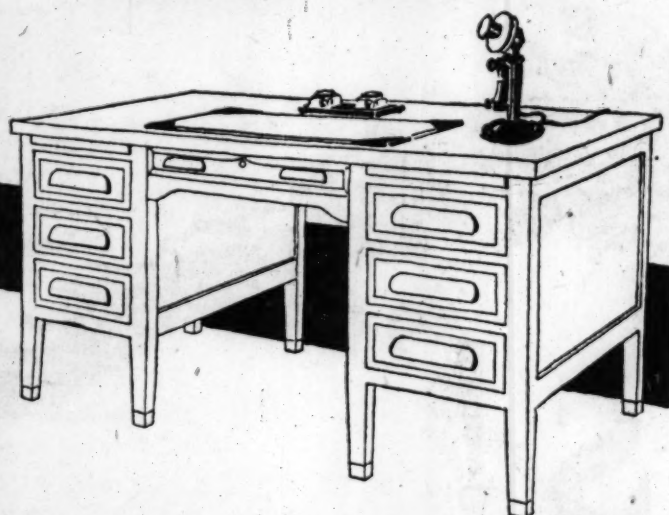

The health authorities of Wilmington refused to permit the exhumation of the body of McAteer after his relatives there had buried him in Cathedral cemetery against the wishes of his widow.

When the exhumation took place in Wilmington, police officers tried to stop it, but without success. Mr. McAteer was formerly a city employe here.

ROBBED OF $50 IN HOLDUP.
Two armed bandits driving a Hudson automobile believed by the police to be stolen, yesterday held up Julius Pleiner, 102 West 51st street, in front of his home, and took $50 and two checks from him.

LIBERTY MUTUAL

STRENGTH
SERVICE SAVING

“Within eight days all claims against me were settled”

Actual Example of Liberty Mutual Automobile Insurance Service

“ONE of my drivers was approaching a curve at the foot of a grade. As he turned, a child, skipping rope, appeared directly in his path. He was not going fast. The car was apparently in good condition. He applied the brakes—and, without warning, the brake rod snapped!”

“After he carried the child into the house, I notified the Liberty Mutual. A representative came promptly. I was at once relieved of all the trying arrangements. And within eight days all claims against me had been settled, to the entire satisfaction of the parents.

“This prompt service, together with the savings I have made on my premiums, convince me that the Liberty Mutual is a concern I want to recommend to my friends.”

(Signed) THOMAS JOSEPH McCUE,
Watertown, Mass.

If you have been driving your car without full protection don't drive another mile until you get it.

Take no chances with fate. You may have such an accident—but will it find you protected as Mr. McCue was? Or would you have had to face the trying circumstances of a court room scene—a judgment perhaps great enough to wipe out everything you own, even your home itself?

No matter how careful you are—accidents happen!

Get a Liberty Mutual Automobile policy today. Put your mind at ease. Know that no matter what happens while you are driving you have taken every precaution to provide full protection.

Liberty Mutual protection saves you trouble, worry, loss—even serious embarrassment at the hands of the law. 99 out of every 100 claims against Liberty Mutual policyholders are settled out of court.

And in addition Liberty Mutual policyholders have always received this service at a great saving in insurance cost. The saving comes in the form of annual 30% cash refunds.

In dollars and cents this means that every policyholder has received $30 back for every $100 of premium.

Don't put off this important duty another day. Write or telephone our office today. You can get a Liberty Mutual policy in only one way—direct from the Company.

Certain New Silks Most in Demand

Presented in This Special Selling at Remarkably Moderate Prices

Selecting silks from these assortments means not only certainty of their fashion importance, but also satisfaction in the matter of quality and economy. No favored color or weave is lacking. Featured at this time are the following:

Baronette Satins, $3.50 Yard

A fabric high in favor. 40 inches wide, to be had in white, in colors and in black.

Novel and new checked and striped silks in taffeta and Louisine weaves. Many color effects. 35 inches wide, $1.95 and $2.45 yard.

Chiffon Taffetas and Crepe de Chine Decidedly Low-priced at $3 Yard

The chiffon taffetas are 36 inches wide. In this group are also gros de Londres dress silks, also 36 inches wide. Both fabrics are superior.

Specially Priced—Black Chiffon Dress Taffetas, $1.65 and $1.95 Yard

There is just a limited quantity of these taffetas. Soft and lustrous in quality. The sort much sought now for the making of crisp, fresh-looking summer street frocks. Early choice is advised.

Second Floor, North.

Exceptional Values at Their Prices Are These Finer Modes in Women's and Misses' Suits Priced $65

And Spring Wraps of Uncommon Distinction at $75

Unmistakably the better fashions. And so, more unusual at their moderate pricing. Indeed, to have waited until now to choose a suit or wrap brings, in these groups, exceptional advantages in selection. For they give one a choice of practically every new mode which is assured of a continued success.

Women's Suits of Tricotine and Twill Are Exceedingly Well Tailored Tailoring of this sort is the deciding factor in smartness of suit modes. In navy blue, tan and black. Many are in the new longer length. A most interesting group, one of which is sketched at right center. This suit is of tricotine with braiding and hand-stitched arrowheads.

Women's and Misses' Wraps, Unusual in Ways of Garniture Are $75

The garniture is selected with unerring taste for the mode for which it is best suited. Colors are the rich shades characteristic of the newer fashions. Fabrics are those of soft texture which lend themselves perfectly to graceful lines. The coats sketched are typical of these interesting groups.

At the left center is a misses' wrap of velveteen. The new cape collar weighted with decorative tassels is an effective feature.

Misses' Suits Are in Varied Styles, Fine of Fabric, Smart in Color

Braided, embroidered, or strictly tailored, with touches of hand-embroidery to give distinction. Tailored folds and tucks applied with cleverness and originality. Tricotine and twills are the favored fabrics. The misses' suit sketched at the left is of excellent tricotine.

At the right, a coat of Ramona cloth, for women, with embroidery in a charming motif done in chenille and metal threads.

Fine Tub Blouses, $3.75 and $6

Are Unusual Values Even for a May Sale

The advantages of the May Sale are emphasized by such values as these. They are delightfully typical of the charming style and wide variety which this sale brings.

Hand-made Batiste Blouses, Hand-hemstitched, $3.75

That's the blouse sketched at the left. The material is daintily fine and the hand-work very beautifully done, with every little detail worked out with exceptional care.

Lovely Blouses of Soft White Voile at $6 Have Dainty Lace-edged Frills

The lace is of the much-desired cream tint. Lace edges the cuffs and collar. The voile is sheer and fine. One of the most charming of summer blouse fashions, to be worn with street and sports sweater coat. Sketched above at the right.

A Group of Corsets at $4.50

Particularly Featured in the May Sales

This group has been assembled to meet very definite and different needs in corsets. At this one price there are four specially good models suited to varied types of figures.

Modart Front-Lace Corsets—Two Models

One of fancy pink batiste is well-boned and is for the fuller type of figure. Medium high at the top and skillfully designed to take care of the flesh above the waistline.

The other model is for the slender type of figure. It has a low top with elastic inset well placed and the shorter skirt. This is of fancy white batiste, a very attractive fabric.

The Laced-in-the-Back Corsets at $4.50

One for the heavier type of figure is well-boned with rubberized boning, and has elastic section in the skirt. Another for the average type of figure is of silk broche. This has a very low top.

"MOTHERS' DAY" DAY OF JOY FOR JACK DEMPSEY

Atlantic City, N. J., May 8.—(Special.)—The central figure at one function after another, and absorbed in the details of his training camp, Jack Dempsey did not forget that today was mothers' day.

The champion was up before 6 o'clock this morning and his first thought was of his mother back in Salt Lake City.

After wiring a florist, the champion sent this telegram to Mrs. Ella Dempsey, his mother:

"This is mothers' day. Expect a great bouquet of flowers. Am going to train hard so you won't be disappointed on July 2, Jack."

Wire from Mother.

When he reached the camp this afternoon, this message awaited him: "Dear boy: I just knew you wouldn't forget your mother. We know what to expect in Jersey City, Mother."

"Some girl," burst out Jack to his friends after reading the dispatch. "Confidence is a great thing, not only when you have it yourself, but when it is shown by your best girl."

Dempsey attended church with Mayor Ed Bader, who has personally taken Jack in charge. The mayor is being led a merry gallop in looking to his entertainment.

Plays Round of Golf.

After church, Dempsey purchased white carnations for the mayor and himself, and then they trod the board walk.

Mayor Bader took Dempsey and Joe Rannion to the Atlantic City Country club, where they were luncheon guests of Thomas Wooton of Atlantic City. Dempsey and the mayor paired off against Wooton, who is the home club champion, and Bannion.

Dempsey tonight again was the guest around the festive board of nearly a score of senators and congressmen here for the week end.

Dempsey gave directions that, starting tomorrow, a regular program will be in order. He intends rising at 6 o'clock in the morning. Only road work will be undertaken on the few days, with perhaps some rope exercising.

WESTERN WOMEN GOLF BODY FACES HEAVY SCHEDULE

With the women's western championship scheduled for the Westmoreland Country club Aug. 22, the city championship billed at Flossmoor, and several extended tournaments listed, the Women's Western Golf association has the basis for a record season.

Added to these events are many open days, and of these there are a number yet to be listed. Events booked are as follows:

June 10, guest day at Park Ridge; June 12 and 14, open tournament at Edgewater; June 20, open day at Skokie; June 28, open day at Evanston; June 30, open day at Olympia Fields; July 8, guest day at Park Ridge; July 12, 13, 14, medal play tournament at Evanston; July 18 to 22, inclusive, city championship at Flossmoor; July 26, open day at Calumet; July 27 and 28, open tournament at Ridge; July 29, open day at Ridge; Aug. 2, open tournament at Glen View; Aug. 9, open day at Ridgeview; Aug. 12, guest day at Park Ridge; Aug. 22 to 27, inclusive, women's western championship at Westmoreland.

Sept. 9, guest day at Park Ridge; Sept. 12, W. W. G. A. par trophy competition; Sept. 13, open day at Olympia Fields; Sept. 20, open tournament at Calumet.

LEVY-PAINTER WIN NET DOUBLES

Robert Levy and Weston Painter of the home club won the "little doubles" one day tournament of the South Park Tennis club yesterday, defeating Sam Fogelson and C. Frankenstein, University of Chicago, in the final round.

5-5. Matches were the best nine of seventeen games in order to finish the tournament in one day. Twenty pairs were entered.

In opening round matches of the Commercial Tennis association Western Electric defeated People's Gas eight out of nine matches, and Sears-Robinson defeated Chicago Telephone six out of seven.

JACKIES BOX AT COUNTISS SHOW

A series of elimination bouts will be held at Great Lakes Naval Training station this week to select principals for the eight countess show staged by Mrs. Frederick Countess aboard the U. S. Commodore on Saturday night.

Two of the best navy boxers in each class will be pitted against each other and the show is open to the public. Proceeds will go to Lawrence Hall for Boys, an institution which houses 135 boys ranging from 6 to 15 years.

STRAIGHT BY FRANK FROM THE SHOULDER

INTIMIDATION seems to be one of the weapons of the wrestling trust. Here is a letter sent in by one of the members of the trust or by one of its paid agents. It is printed to give the public an idea of the methods used by those who would rule and ruin the wrestling game:

CHICAGO, May 2, 1921.

Dear Frank:

I am writing this at the suggestion of a friend and to perhaps guide you in your movements. You know the adage "people in glass houses should not throw stones." I see you are relentless in your attack on us as you call it the "wrestling trust." You pick certain folks for your target and go along with others and thereby endanger yourself and position.

"The wrestling trust" as you put it has convincing evidence of your connections with the would-be trust busters. They have proof that you took money from the young fellow who ran the De-metral-Gardini match. They know and have proof of your connections with Dr. Krone and the gifts he has showered you with.

Copies of your paper show how you knock one show and boost the other. How long you have been in the sporting game I do not know, but as a manager of wrestlers and my connections with promoters, etc. allow me to say I wouldn't trust any of them. Act as you see fit, but remember what happens when thieves fall out. It is common gossip in wrestling circles that the reason you are knock-

ILLINOI, WOLVERINES, AND BADGERS HEAD BASEBALL SCRAMBLE

BY WALTER ECKERSALL.

With the western conference baseball season about half over, Illinois, Michigan and Wisconsin are looking as the strongest teams, with Ohio State still having a chance to finish near the top.

Illinois has five straight victories to its credit. With the exception for the majority of its first Ohio State game, which was won by a 3 to 2 score, the Orange and Blue team has won its contests by decisive scores.

The Buckeyes, however, threw a scare into Landgren's men on Saturday, when they got to "Lefty" Barnes early in the game and scored four runs. Illinois overcame the lead by staging one of its characteristic rallies in the fifth inning, good for five runs.

Road Games Ahead.

The downstaters have won two games from Ohio State and defeated Northwestern, Chicago, and Iowa. Four of the five games have been played at home, and the team will be forced to travel for the majority of its remaining Big Ten contests. In addition to winning its conference games, Illinois took a two game series from Notre Dame.

Michigan has nailed three Big Ten victories, and is tied with Illinois in the percentage column. The Wolverines won both games from Purdue and took a hard fought contest from Chicago on Saturday. Michigan and Illinois are scheduled to meet in home and home games on May 28 and June 4.

Badgers Are Hard Hitters.

Although Illinois and Michigan are leading in the percentage column, Wisconsin must not be overlooked. The Badgers were defeated in one of the doubleheader games by Indiana earlier in the season, but since that time have won from Northwestern, Chicago, and Purdue.

Wisconsin will entertain Illinois at Madison on Saturday, and will clash with the downstaters in a return game at Urbana on May 20. The Badgers will go to Ann Arbor to meet Michigan on May 30, and the return game will take place at Madison on June 6.

The Buckeyes do not meet Wisconsin, but play a two game series with Michigan. The Wolverines will play at Columbus on May 16, and the return game will be at Ann Arbor on May 27.

ing is because you are not taken care of. These same fellows who profess to be your friend go about telling "now I'll whip you into line, I slipped so and so and he'll take care of those who don't take care of me."

This is not a letter of censure. It is just a little tipoff to try and show you that those whom you befriend today will let you hold the bag tomorrow.

SPORTS through Eegren's EYES

BY ROBERT EDGREN.

JACK DEMPSEY weighed 193 when he began training at Fred Welch's place, Summit, N. J. He weighed more at Toledo, yet he entered the ring against Willard at 183. With a little more weight he'll go down to about the same mark again easily. He dropped weight fast the last week at Toledo.

Dempsey wants to finish his training work at the shore, where he can have an occasional swim in salt water. He always believed in salt water swimming. When a boy in Oakland he spent his spare time at the baths in Alameda, swimming in San Francisco bay, which is always cold because of the current down along the coast from the northern ice fields.

When training for a fight he likes a daily swim, and he refuses to believe that swimming reduces his vitality—a common belief among boxers and athletes in general.

Interest in this bout? Well, Tex Rickard received over $20,000 with requests for ringside seats before he had announced where the bout was to be held or that it was a real fixture. A large number of seat orders have come in from Canada, and from western and middle western cities.

Boxing His Side Line.

Charles Jenkins, who won the welterweight boxing championship in a A. A. U. championship recently, is one amateur who isn't likely to make good with the best of the professionals. No doubt he has the experience. He might have, with Rickard, as Midget Smith did, and his way up to the $10,000 prize that doesn't interest him.

He has a good position with a Los Angeles Athletic club and is active in competition of some sort, but to the athletic director he said: "I'll try boxing if you want me to. I can box a little. But if I don't make good at boxing I'll try to make good at swimming. I know I'm a swimmer."

Jenkins was tried out as a boxer and being substituted for a boxer was to have boxed the coast champion style by giving the champion—Geyer, a very good water-

In a few weeks Jenkins was to be to the national championships in tennis, where he beat down the elements one after another, fighting a tiger.

After going home he beat down again, having him on the floor and nearly done for at the end of the four rounds. Jenkins was in unusual natural boxing ability. He moves in and out softly, in no hurry and suddenly cuts loose a terrific flurry of fighting and hard, first knockouts.

George Blake, army boxing instructor during the war, taught Jenkins all the technical boxing he knows in a few weeks.

FARM AND GARDEN

POOR SOIL PLANT.

THERE is a strip of poor soil in almost every garden where most of the common vegetables and flowers fail to grow, no matter how well the planting, watering, and cultivating is done. It is usually a waste of time and seed to plant such ground, but if the sun strikes it throughout the day soil of this kind will be found an excellent place for the growing of nasturtiums.

Nasturtium is a sure bloomer, gives off a spicy, refreshing fragrance that makes it valuable as a flower to grow in window boxes, and is rich with its brilliant colors and varieties of tones. Tall varieties are used in windows or to trail over mounds and stumps.

While the long trailing varieties produce more flowers, the dwarf nasturtiums are the best for decorative purposes. A single row eight to twelve feet long of the dwarf plants will furnish flowers for table decoration from July until late in the summer. Some of the varieties have variegated leaves and are valuable for both flowers and foliage.

If nasturtiums are planted in rich soil an abundance of foliage is produced and comparatively few blossoms will appear. Fertilizer, particularly the kind containing nitrogenous plant food, should not be used on the soil where nasturtium seed is to be planted.

By Mae Tinee.

"THE MIRACLE MAN" started I suppose, until we have completely forgotten that masterly picture, its imitations will be with us. "The Faith Healer" may be described as one of these. From the viewpoints of technicality and acting, the production is quite excellent. The story, however, is a weak one. It is divine healing propaganda not at all forcefully or convincingly propounded.

Mr. Sills is Michaels, a shepherd, who, while ending his sheep, feels the call to go forth and heal. He starts out with his staff and his efforts are amazingly rewarded. Through him the blind see, the lame walk, and a beautiful woman, bedridden for years, becomes well and strong.

Then the healer falls in love. It is with the niece of the beautiful, formerly bedridden woman. The girl, through his influence, has deserted evil ways and in turn adores the shepherd. Because of this earthly love, however, he seems to lose his power. It returns when he makes a certain discovery—that he lost it because of fear of the love he felt.

Criticizing too much pictures of this kind. Who knows—they may help somebody—and if they do why then they have not been made in vain. So while "The Faith Healer" did not appeal to me, it may be the very thing you're looking for.

CLOSINGS

Helen Keller, through the eyes and fingers of her tutor, Mrs. Annie Sullivan Macy, and her mother, recently enjoyed greatly Charlie Chaplin's "The Kid." Miss Keller seemed to thoroughly understand the picture.

HAROLD TEEN—WANTS A SHORTER SENTENCE!

ASK ME! ASK ME!

Constant Reader: You must have had a lot of fun overhearing that conversation. I don't believe it would be just kind of me to print it, though, do you? Your letter was mighty interesting.

F. A. M.: You haven't? Why, Mr. Williams appears quite often on the screen. Yes, Agnes Ayres and Alice Joyce to look a bit alike. Katherine MacDonald and Mary MacLaren are sisters. Always glad to do any little thing we can for you. Come again.

The Post: Eugene O'Brien's care of Selznick, 729 7th avenue, New York. Emory Johnson? Dunne, Buck Jones? Fox, Hollywood. Thomas Meighan, Lasky, Hollywood. Vincent, Coleman, Green Room club, New York. Douglas McLean, Inc., Culver City, Cal. Glad you think I'm a dear. (Sometimes I think I'm a goat.)

H. A. W.: What to do? What to do?

and at its finish remarked enthusiastically:

"It's wonderful!"

An announcement of interest is the one that Frederick Ward will soon start work on a film version of "Omar, the Tent Maker," at the Brunton studio.

BRIGHT SAYINGS OF THE CHILDREN

William walked into a meat market and asked for a nickel's worth of dog meat.

Several customers were present and one of them said:

"Take home that dog meat."

"No, thank you," said the boy.

"Why not?" asked the man.

"Because I don't want to take home a dog's dinner."

"That's a good answer," said the man.

TRIBUNE COOK BOOK

BY JANE EDDINGTON.

Lamb or Mutton.

Some letters from young housewives recently received on the subject of how to choose meats make an article in the "Weekly News Letter" of May 4 put out by the United States department of agriculture seem most timely. It is on the subject of how to distinguish lamb from mutton.

"One of the standard methods of distinguishing lamb from mutton is to inspect the first or ankle joint of the front leg. In dressing a lamb, the knuckle, or end of the shank bone, is broken off, and the end of the bone presents a ridged and porous appearance. This is soft and moist to the touch, and carries a decidedly red color. As the animal grows older the bone becomes whiter and harder."

"There is much more on this subject. Those who have tried to sell mutton for the more expensive lamb sometimes break the knuckle of the sheep mechanically, but in these instances the bones are decidedly jagged and splintered and lack the redness which is characteristic of lamb and yearly carcasses." The article ends with a paragraph of preaching for the family in choosing meats.

If he broke his word to you about the gambling, you'd better let him go. It is a bad habit and one that causes great misery. And if he will not stop now, he will not after you are married.

DORIS BLAKE'S ANSWERS

The Man Who Gambles.

"Dear Miss Blake: I have been going with a young man four years my senior for almost five months now, and have learned to love him, and I know that my love is reciprocated. Some time ago he gambled and lost a large sum of money. After telling me all about the latter, he promised never to participate again. Now, Miss Blake, I have confidence in the man I love, but of late I have heard from different sources that he still indulges. My folks strenuously object to my going with him. Miss Blake, I feel confident that one can't go wrong with your advice, so I'll ask you please to help me out as to how to act in the near future."

"P. A."

If he broke his word to you about the gambling, you'd better let him go. It is a bad habit and one that causes great misery. And if he will not stop now, he will not after you are married.

America's Richest Agricultural Land in NORTH DAKOTA

extending from the Rio Grande r in Southeastern Texas and ching northward from that nearly cutting Oklahoma, as and Nebraska in two,
ding a trifle as it strikes
Dakota and then opening s a great benediction as it s the North Dakota line is a of black, highly productive soil that in actual fertility exceeds anything in the United States of America. Texas, Oklahoma,

Kansas and Nebraska have a mere fraction of this soil. It covers about one-fourth of the State of South Dakota, but it includes more than one-half of the State of North Dakota.

Looking at this map, it is easy to conceive that North Dakota is actually one of the most important states in the Northwest. It has 645,730 inhabitants, an area of 70,000 square miles and over 17,000,000 acres under actual cultivation. It produces more spring wheat than any other State in the Union. This map is based on data obtained by the Bureau of Soils, Department of Agriculture.

REO
WHY IS IT
That there are so few REOs advertised in the classified columns of the Chicago newspapers?
This question is asked of us every day and it's a perfectly natural question. When you take into consideration the large number of cars in use in this city and vicinity it would be reasonable to suppose that there would be many used REOs for sale. Yet, as a matter of fact, there are very few REOs offered for sale—except by this company and its dealers.
We think we know the answer. Once a REO owner always a REO enthusiast, you know. When a REO owner gets ready to dispose of his car he comes back to us for another REO. He knows the satisfaction that REO dependability, REO service, and REO durability—all based on sound REO engineering—have given him; and so he has just naturally become a member of the REO family.
In our Used Car Department 90% of cars are REOs. Many of these are rebuilt and all are sold with a guarantee. Nearly every person who buys a used REO from us eventually comes back and trades it in on a new REO.
We now have on hand a large assortment of used cars and trucks. If you are contemplating the purchase of a used car, buy a used REO. A small deposit will secure one—pay the balance as you like.

Announcing Another Very Special Sale of Beauvais Seamless Axminster Rugs

A very fortunate purchase much under the usual price makes possible this sale. These rugs are the well-known Stephen Sanford & Sons' seamless Axminster rugs, but there is a slight imperfection in the weave which in no way will affect the wearing qualities, but results in greatly lowering the pricing.

In Taupe, Mole, Blue, Rose and Green

The color choice is particularly wide, as may be noted, and includes very beautiful and harmonious shades of those colors most prominent in interior decorating. These rugs are to be had in the following sizes at the following prices:

27 x 54-inch size at $3.85
 4 1/2 x 6 1/2-ft. size at $12.50
 8 1/4 x 10 1/2-ft. size, $37.50
 36 x 70-inch size, $6.50
 6 x 9-ft. size at $23.50
 9 x 12-ft. size at $42.50

Special Size—7 1/2 x 9 Ft. is Priced at $28.50
